Josef Newgarden has won at least one NTT INDYCAR SERIES race each year he has been a member of Team Penske – a streak that was extended to nine seasons after his win at Nashville Superspeedway to close out the 2025 season. As one of the most accomplished and recognizable stars of American motorsports, the driver of the No. 2 PPG Chevrolet continues to produce both on and off the track in his 15th season competing in North America's top open-wheel series in 2026.

A winter sports and fitness enthusiast who loves to travel abroad, Newgarden and his wife Ashley reside in Nashville, Tenn. with their young sons. He is a proud supporter of the Serious Fun Children's Network started by actor and racer, Paul Newman, and Wags and Walks animal adoption where the family adopted their dog, Axel.
